

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The current Indiana law has prevented me from receiving many unwanted phone solicitations during our family dinner time. I like the our law to stand as it is currently written.

Thank you, Fred Evans